WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 9, 1862

To Correspondents.

Our correspondents must allow us to take our own time for reading their communications. We have no time to be read to. It is literally impossible.

Please Notice.

We have no time to transcribe communications. We sometimes receive communications with a scrap of confidential information written on the back of the manuscript. Of course if we use the manuscript we have to re-write it, and this imposes entirely too much labor on us. We have no time for such work.

Notice to Club-Makers.

The Editor will be greatly obliged to persons making up clubs for the Union if they will remit to the publishers and not to himself. Communications and subscriptions are sometimes mixed up with private information in such a manner as to cause needless delay and trouble to all parties.

Bally to Arms!

By authority of the Federal Government, I propose to raise a Battalion of Cavalry for service and home protection in Tennessee. Arms, Horses, Saddles and Clothing will be furnished.

I will address the people at Watertown, on Monday, the 14th; at New Middleton, on Tuesday, the 15th; at Alexandria, on Wednesday, the 16th; and at Liberty, on Thursday, the 17th instant.

Come on, boys, let us preserve our homes and save the Union.

WM. B. STOKES.

General Order, No. 16.

Hearneaus U. S. Forces, &c.,
Nashville, July 3, 1862.

All United States soldiers in this city and the country around, who are entertained at private hospitals, hotels, boarding houses, or private houses, and not under treatment at United States Hospital, will report themselves at these Headquarters without delay, or be considered deserters.

In cases of serious disability from wounds or sickness which may prevent obedience to this order, the soldier must furnish a certificate of a physician of good standing, describing his case.

By command,

COR. JNO. F. MILLER,
Commanding Post.

July 3-31.

Headquarters, District of the Ohio:

Nashville, Tenn., July 5, 1862.

COL. LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, 69th Ohio
Volunteers, Previous Marshal, &c.

COLONEL: A paper is on file in this office, in the hand writing of Capt. D. C. Dutton, Second Tennessee Volunteers, acknowledging the receipt of twenty-five dollars from two soldiers, in consideration of which he promises to get them discharged, and to furnish them with complete sets of "Discharge papers."

The Second Tennessee Volunteers is not in the U. S. service, and he is not, therefore, entitled to a Court Martial.

His military offence is an infamous one, and demands an infamously punishment. You will have his insignia of rank and buttons of his coat stripped from him by a private soldier, in front of the Regiment—paraded—and then cause him to be marched, by a file of the Guard, to the tune of the regiments march, to the gate of the enclosure to the Provost Barracks, where you will have a Policeman stationed to receive him, and turn him over to the civil authorities, to answer for a violation of the laws of the State of Tennessee, in obtaining money under false pretenses. I am, Sir,

Very respectfully,

O. D. GREENE,

July 6-1w
